- ▶ A niche procurement recruitment business
- ▶ Turnkey, end to end management of large scale recruitment projects

How we do what we do

Our starting point for all assignments is to make sure we really understand your business, culture and future direction so that our search and assessment processes are framed to deliver great candidates, that not only have the right skills and experience but are also an excellent fit for your organisation.

We keep you fully briefed on progress and follow tried and tested processes that get results. Day to day contact will be with one of our Consultants who behind the scenes, will have the support of an experienced and well connected project team.

What sets us apart?

- ▶ The breadth of industry sectors we support; retail, eetail, manufacturing, hi-tech and beyond
- ▶ The extent of our experience; we've been recruiting for over 30 years
- ▶ Our contact base and the willingness of industry influencers to spend time with us
- ▶ Our industry know-how and understanding, our senior team have all worked in the logistics and supply chain sector
